Personal Effects & Household Goods Clause

Warranted that the sum insured represents the full value of the whole of the insured property. This insurance is subject to the Conditions of Average, if the actual value of the insured property shall at the time of loss be of greater than the sum insured hereby, the Assured shall only be entitled to receive such proportion of the loss as the sum insured bears to the said actual value.

Warranted that in the event of loss of or damage of any article or articles forming part of a pair or set, the Company's liability shall be limited to the proportionate value of such parts which may be lost or damaged without any reference to any special value which such article or articles may have as part of such pair or set.

Warranted that jewellery, personal ornaments, watches, precious stones and metals, securities, stamps and money are excluded from this insurance.

In the event of damage to any part of parts of an insured machine or appliance caused by a peril covered by this insurance, the Company's liability shall be limited to the reasonable cost of replacement or repair of such part or parts plus charges forwarding and refitting. Provided always that in no case shall the liability of the Company exceed the insured value of the complete machine or appliances. In any event, the Company will not indemnify the Assured for any depreciation arising out of such damage or repair.

Excluding the risks of scratching and discolouration in respect of pictures & paintings.

Remarks: Above policy wording is a guideline only. Please refer to the Company for details in respect of individual policy.
